

My name is Reggie Ryan and I am Head Boy of JRCS.

Being appointed Head Boy has opened many opportunities for me. That feeling of accomplishment and confidence, knowing that this status as Head Boy will let me reveal my kindness and dedication to the students who attend Jo Richardson.

Here's a little bit about me.

I joined JRCS in 2012 starting a new journey in my life, dedicated to finding my true passion and myself. My all-time favourite subject is Drama which is in my opinion a great way to express yourself, reveal what your made of.

Jo Richardson is a great school.

Compared to other schools in Barking and Dagenham, JRCS has a reputation for giving students amazing opportunities.

My biggest accomplishment, thanks to Jo

Richardson is being able to talk amongst thousands of people at Wembley Stadium. To talk about our school and what our school does to give back to the community. My proudest of moments in my opinion is receiving a trophy and an award in Performing arts. Thanks to my participation in the school's production of 'Oliver Twist' I received this award due to being nominated from all music, drama and dance staff. Many Thanks.

My awards and my accomplishments have given me a status and reputation in school which gets me positive attention from teachers and students. I show kindness and care because I believe that I can make change. Being a peer Mentor, a Sports Leader... being Head Boy it all has made me so proud to be a student in JRCS.

I would like to say a massive thank you to the teachers at Jo Richardson for giving me a chance to be myself and accomplish many great things. I am truly thankful to all.
