To prepare you for your Mocks in January 2016, and your end of year exams, you will be set homework from your revision guides and workbooks each week to revise a topic. Every Monday W2, you will have a short 20 minute test to check your understanding of the topic. If you do not achieve the pass mark for that test, you will be required to attend intervention for that topic on a Tuesday

W1. If you meet the minimum marks needed, you will not be required to come back for intervention, so it's advised that you make a real effort and take these short tests seriously. Please see the schedule above to see when you are due to take tests for each topic.
