Positive Parenting Seminar

We all know that parenting is probably one of the most difficult and challenging jobs in the world. There is no book, we have to learn as we go along, and sometimes we just pray we're getting it right! Here at JRCS, we pride ourselves on our pastoral systems, and whenever possible, we like to involve parents and carers in our processes. Therefore, it is with great delight that we are able to offer you, the chance of attending one of three parental seminars, here at the school.

The seminars last 90 minutes, and include a presentation, and a question and answer session. You will be amongst parents facing many of the same challenges as you. You will go home with plenty of ideas and hopefully, the confidence to help you deal with the most common issues raised.

The first seminar is Raising Responsible Teenagers: Find out what makes teenagers tick! You'll leave with new ideas on how to encourage your teenager to make good decisions, be respectful, considerate, reliable, and involved in family life. The seminar will be delivered by Meave Darroux of the Brilliant Parenting Organisation.

When? Tuesday 11th December 10:15am
Where? Jo Richardson Community School

The seminars are part of the Triple P Parenting Course, and we are hoping that these seminars will encourage you to take part in the on-line course, which is free, and available via the school. We also have an opportunity to run a number of group sessions within school, with the aid of a STAR worker from Barking and Dagenham CAMHS.

If you are interested in any of the above, please contact Ms Meaney (Pastoral Support Assistant) at the school. Email: ameaney@jorichardson.org.uk

The Support Team are thankful for the generosity of the students, parents and staff. You helped children in need here in the UK and around the world.

Live stream to five cities across North America

On Thursday evening 19 of the 64 young people who organised our Walk 4 Water campaign were involved in a live stream to five cities across North America (pictured on the front page). The work that the students did was picked up by an organisation called WE Movement and a short film was made about how young people engage with social action for change. Our students have always been globally aware of issues such as hunger, poverty, human rights, gender equality and so it came as no surprise that their 6km walk around the Serpentine in London captured global recognition.

On Thursday the students were filmed by a Canadian film crew and were live streamed to 37,000 people in Toronto, New York, Newfoundland and the Bahamas to name a few. The students were raising awareness about the lack of clean water for over 800 million people across the globe and showcasing their organisation and communication skills in planning this walk to highlight the need for this basic human right.

Nothing phased the students and their professionalism and maturity shone through in the filming.

Well done to each and every one of you.

Little Haven's Article

On Monday both Year 12 and Year 13 Health and Social Care classes went to visit Little Havens Hospice. This is a hospice in Benfleet that looks after children aged 1 month to 18 years old who have life changing illnesses or terminal illnesses. The hospice has unique services that tailors to the needs of the children such as a room filled with special lights to calm the patients in time of distress, special equipment tailored to the physical needs of the patients such as having special bath tubs which can be raised and lowered for the height of the children. As visitors with no idea of what it would be like, we were thoroughly surprised by how colourful and unique the hospice could make the rooms for the children, one individuals' room was specially decorated with cars as they loved the Pixar film Cars. It was an enjoyable and insightful experience for everyone and we are looking forward to completing some fundraising activities for the hospice.

Votes for Women

Last Friday we were fortunate enough to host the Museum of London who came in to put on a performance for KS3 to mark the centenary of women getting the vote. Years 7, 8 and 9 watched and were able to participate in the assembly showcasing remarkable women and men who campaigned tirelessly for voting rights to be changed during the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

The performance followed the life of Shelley, a girl who was not only learning about women's suffrage at school but was also experiencing the pressures lots of young women face today. It celebrated the achievements of the suffragettes 100 years ago but also highlighted the work still needed to be done to achieve real equality.

This is an area we discuss frequently in English when trying to apply a feminist lens to the texts we teach and learn, as well as being the focus for our recent National Poetry Day assembly on the theme of change. Seeing the impact of inequality in relation to a historical movement provided a really powerful way for students to engage in the subject of equality and the empowerment of women.

Thank you to all staff and students involved in the performance, as well as the Museum of London for providing KS3 with such a valuable experience.

Head of English KS3

Textiles Club

Textiles Club has been really successful this year; along with the old members, we had 10 new Year 7 starters.

The girls are all working on cross-stitching and embroidery techniques; it has been a real pleasure to see them develop their skills and working hard to create brilliant textiles products.

Keep up the good work girls!

Below is a copy of the Year 11 mock exam timetable. These are internal exams and students will be required to attend normal lessons. Please make sure students have a good breakfast and they have the correct equipment with them for each exam, including a calculator (if needed) and a black pen.

If they wish to, they may bring water, but this needs to be in a clear plastic bottle with the label removed.

Please remind your child that under no circumstances should mobile phones be taken into exam rooms. If your child is unable to attend any of their exams, please call the attendance line as usual and we will require a letter from your doctor.
