It gives me great pleasure to introduce the new Head Boy and Girl and Deputy Head Boy and Girl for the academic Year 2019-2020. 22 students interviewed for the position and it was an extremely competitive interview process. English Literature Paper 1 Revision Session

The English Department would like to remind Year 11 students that there is a Literature Paper 1 Revision Session for them on Saturday 11th May 2019. This will run promptly from 8.45am until 1.00pm in the English Department. Students should arrive at school and be registered and will be told where they need to be for their sessions. Students should bring pens, pencils, highlighters and some paper of their own to these sessions.

Miss Davies
English Department

Congratulations also to our Leadership Award winner Miss Draisey who was a worthy winner.

Student Communication Manager

Cooking Club

Students had a really good Cooking Club this week where they developed their skills in Spanish cooking. Students prepared a Spanish omelette, it was a difficult task with a lot of cutting skills involved and they managed to complete some excellent dishes. The students thought this dish was really tasty and wanted to cook it again at home. I would like to thank Mrs Moffatt for her continued support, I could not run it without her.

Well done for a successful evening.

Author Stephen Kelman visits JRCS

Last Thursday we hosted a visit from Stephen Kelman, the author of Pigeon English, who ran Q&A sessions with Years 9-11 about his novel. Students start studying Pigeon English in Year 9 in preparation for the GCSE English Literature exam they take at the end of Year 11, so this visit was extremely helpful for students who are working hard to revise for it at the moment.

Students spent time in their English lessons writing questions for Mr Kelman that were then put to him by our student panels. Kelman was able to provide new insights to the novel and told us about his journey to becoming a writer. He was very impressed by the quality of the questions he was asked and stayed behind at the end to talk to students, sign copies of their novels and pose for photos.

It's very rare that students have the chance to pose questions to the authors they study at GCSE so this was a fantastic opportunity to get involved in.

Thank you to all staff who supervised and students who were involved in the sessions – we hope they have been valuable in your study of the novel.

Ms Dulwich
Head of English (KS3)

GCE & GCSE Exams

Below is the exam timetable for GCE and GCSE exams which start on Monday 13th May. These are official exams and students will be required to attend normal lessons when they do not have a scheduled exam. Please make sure students have a good breakfast and they have the correct equipment with them for each exam, including a calculator (if needed) and a black pen. If they wish to, they may bring water, but this needs to be in a clear plastic bottle with the label removed. Please remind your child that under no circumstances should mobile phones or smart watches be taken into exam rooms. If your child is unable to attend any of their exams, please call the attendance line as usual and we will require a letter from your doctor.
